Doctors Organize.

The physicians of Lafayette County met at the court house Wednesday afternoon and organized. The organization is known as the Lafayette County Medical Society. This was necessary in order to affiliate with the State and Medical Associations.

The following officers were elected: Dr. P. S. Folkerson of Lexington President, Dr. G. A. Mann of Wellington 1st Vice President, Dr. W. G. Harwood of Dover 2nd Vice President, and Dr. C. T. Ryland of Lexington Secretary and Treasurer. The next meeting will be held the third Tuesday in November, at which time the constitution prescribed by the state Association will be adopted.

Dr. Robert D. Haile of Clinton, Mo., Counselor for the 12th district was present and delivered an address.

Library Evening At Central College.

In the College Calendar for this year, one of the most important features is a "Library Evening" on November the seventh. On that evening an opportunity will be given to all friends to make contributions to the College Library, the faculty and students receiving from eight to eleven. Should contributors wish to acquaint themselves with books now in the Library, they may consult the Central College Library Catalogues which have been placed at the city book-stores. (However, duplicate copies are not undesirable in a college library). At the same places may be found lists of books along lines in which the library is now building, and which would be particularly acceptable.

Death of Mrs. Newhard.

Odessa Democrat:
Mrs. Mary J. Newhard died at her home in this city, Sunday morning October 16, 1904.

Deceased was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, 1838. In 1858 together with her parents she moved to Iowa and in 1858 was married in that state to J. F. Newland who preceded her to the grave some 6 or 7 years ago. To this union eight children were born, six boys and two girls, all of whom survive her.

With her husband she came to Lafayette county in 1875, settling near Dover. In 1883, with husband and family she moved to Odessa where she has since resided.

Hawes Dates Canceled.

The following telegram was received Thursday morning by H. F. Blackwell, chairman Democratic county committee:

St. Louis, Mo., Oct., 19—At a conference of the city committee and city candidates with the state committee today it was decided to cancel all of Mr. Hawes dates out in the state, as campaign in the city demands his constant attention.

W. D. VANDIVER.

This announcement was received with regret. Many were disappointed, for it is believed that few men in Missouri would have brought together a larger crowd.

45 to 0 In Favor of W. M. A.

The first foot ball team of W. M. A. won from the Centralia High school team Monday afternoon by the score of 45 to 0. Centralia outweighed the visitors several pounds to the man but were played off their feet. W. M. A. show a marked improvement in their playing since the last game, playing much faster and with more confidence.

The second team was outclassed in every way by the Higginsville High school and was defeated, the score being 50 to 0.

Council Proceedings.

The city council met in adjourned session Thursday night.

An ordinance was passed ordering granite sidewalk 6 feet wide on 13th St. between Main and South, where necessary.

Campbell & Hedge filed contract and bond for macadamizing 17th St. and asked an extension of 8 days, which was granted.

Council adjourned to meet Oct. 28.

Entertained By Mrs. Stier.

The Utile Dulci Club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. H. Stier. The visiting guests were Mrs. Taggart of Oberly, Mrs. J. H. Thompson of Kansas City, and Mrs. Geo. W. Tibbals of Milford, Conn. At dinner the guest's prize was won by Miss May Peak and the club prize by Mrs. Frank Bowman. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Bowman.

Another Great Missourian Dead.

Rev. John D. Vincil, Mason, Educator, Minister, and Philanthropist died at his home in St. Louis last Thursday afternoon. Dr. Vincil was grand secretary of the grand lodge of Missouri Masons, president of the Board of Curators of the University of Missouri, secretary of the Methodist conference, president of the Methodist orphans' home and was in various ways connected with many other charitable and benevolent institutions. His career was a demonstration of what pluck and industry can do under adverse circumstances. An orphan at ten he made himself. At fourteen he joined the Methodist church and soon after undertook the work of preparing for the ministry. His career as such began in 1857 when he was elected grand secretary of the Masonic lodge and even then he retained his connection with the conference and each year attended its meetings and served as its secretary. The esteem in which he was held by Missouri Masons was evidenced three weeks ago when he was re-elected for the twenty-seventh time the grand secretary of Missouri by acclamation, this being the first time any man has been thus honored. Dr. Vincil began lowly but he goes to rest numbered with Missouri's great and good, a fit end of a useful life.

JAMES M. CROWDER, P. M.

Smith-Green.

Odessa Democrat:
C. S. Smith and Miss Lula M. Green were married at the Methodist parsonage in this city Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, October 16, 1904, Rev. S. P. Cayton officiating.

The groom is the son of C. C. Smith, of near Pittsville, and is a prosperous young farmer. The bride is the daughter of Judge Henry Green, of the McKidree neighborhood and is a young lady of many admirable traits.

These young people start in life with the brightest prospects and no doubt their many expectations will be fully realized in this new relationship. They left on the 10:20 train that night for the World's Fair.

To the Voters of Lafayette County.

It appears that many of my friends do not know that I am the Republican nominee for county treasurer. I will be unable to make a personal canvass of the entire county and take this means to state that if elected I will give my personal attention to the office and discharge the duties faithfully and impartially.

Very respectfully,

10-2213 JOHN TAUBMAN.

Gun Club Shoot.

The Lexington Gun Club held a live bird and target shoot Thursday afternoon. About 200 live birds were used. The events were five birds and only three members, Cagley, Ramsay and Boyle, succeeded in making a straight score. Chas. Kinkead led in the target events, breaking 18 out of 20.

Miss Marie Hoyt of Golder, Colo., who has been visiting her sister at Lexington College, left for her home Wednesday morning.

Washington Letter.

Admirers of Mr. Bryan find their good opinion of him vindicated in every issue of the Commoner by his earnest, constant and effective advocacy of the election of Parker and Davis.

When the National Democratic Convention adjourned there was the usual effervescence of exultation in the excitable element of the prevailing side of the controversies which were there decided. This soon subsided, and with it whatever sense of irritation it had caused.

Mr. Bryan promptly changed his attitude as the leader of one section of the party in a convention, and addressed himself to his duties as one of the acknowledged leaders of the party as a whole, in its quadrennial struggle to overcome the common enemy. Trusted as he had twice been with the chief honor it could bestow, he doubtless felt the great obligation he was under to prove his worthiness to command by his willingness to obey. He gave no uncertain sound, gave no reservation, and left the most skeptical mind no room to doubt the intense earnestness of his support of democratic principles, and the candidates who represent them in this campaign.

Why, then, should any statement be necessary on the subject of Mr. Bryan's good work? Why are not the columns of his paper sufficient evidence of it? The answer is that everybody cannot see his paper, and ported him. Now that Judge Parker is the candidate of the party, Mr. Bryan, who differs with him on the money question, cordially supports him because he, too, prefers democratic to republican rule. Both are democrats and both submit to the action of democratic national conventions.

If Parker and Davis are elected all democrats will share the honor of the victory. If Parker is defeated let it not be said that it was because of the treachery of Bryan democrats who refused to follow their leader in support of the ticket.

The united action of democrats can elect Parker.

CHAS. A. EDWARDS.

Sydnor's Sale.

Sydnor's annual sale of fine Poland China hogs occurred Tuesday at Higginsville. Only a moderate crowd of buyers was in attendance and many bargains were picked up. About 80 hogs were sold, averaging about $17 each. The highest price was $40.

Public Sale.

Attention is called to the advertisement appearing elsewhere in this issue of a public sale of cattle, hogs, horses and farm implements at the farm of Geo. Fischer, near Lexington, Oct. 25th.

The National Campaign.

Three weeks from next Tuesday either Alton B. Parker or Theodore Roosevelt will be elected President of the United States. If George B. Cortelyou, REV. J. H. DEW, EVANGELIST.

We present our readers with the photograph of the Rev. J. H. Dew, who is to begin a protracted meeting with the Baptist church next Sunday, the 23rd. Mr. Dew is an interesting preacher, and as evangelist for the Missouri Baptist General Association, has had great success in his meetings. Mrs. Dew, who is an accomplished singer, accompanies him and sings.

that persistent efforts are being made by the enemy to weaken the force of his powerful influence by false statements concerning his attitude. These statements would deceive none who see what Mr. Bryan is saying from week to week; but thousands of men who do not see it, and who are devoted to him, are being falsely told that he does not want Parker elected and is not laboring to that end. They carry these tactics so far as to say that in certain states the Bryan men are "sulking;" they hope that such rumors will cause a feeling of uncertainty among them.

Any democrat professing friendship for Mr. Bryan is false to that friendship if he aids by his voice or his vote to give the republican party the victory which Mr. Bryan is laboring with all the force he possesses to prevent.

These things are not said as agreeing with Mr. Bryan's view on the money question, which, as he said in his latest issue, "is not in the campaign," but they are said as recognizing in him a clear intellect, a brave heart and a direct way of fighting.

To sum up the whole matter: When Mr. Bryan was the candidate of the party in 1896, Judge Parker, who differed with him on the money question, supported him cordially because he preferred democratic to republican rule. When Mr. Bryan was the candidate again in 1900, Judge Parker again cordially supported him. Now that Judge Parker is the candidate of the party, Mr. Bryan, who differs with him on the money question, cordially supports him because he, too, prefers democratic to republican rule. Both are democrats and both submit to the action of democratic national conventions.

If Parker and Davis are elected all democrats will share the honor of the victory. If Parker is defeated let it not be said that it was because of the treachery of Bryan democrats who refused to follow their leader in support of the ticket.

The united action of democrats can elect Parker.

That Corder people never do anything by halves was manifested again by the pupils of the high school on Tuesday evening, October 18. Miss Lena Kidd, who won the piano in the Leader contest, was the person to whom they gave their whole attention. These young people have received from their ancestors the spirit of rejoicing with them that rejoice, and according to previous arrangements they met and chaperoned by Principal and Mrs. Jadin proceeded in a body to the residence of Mr. Kidd, and by their presence rejoiced with Miss Lena over her success. We have a number of good musicians among our pupils who entertained with some nice selections; and some who are skilled in culinary lines. These more than manifested their skill in the delightful cakes and ices they had provided. Altogether it was a most enjoyable evening and at a late hour they departed with many wishes for Miss Lena's future, success trusting that in every thing she undertakes she may come just as victorious as in contest. Those present were: Prof. and Mrs. Jadin, Anna and Ellen Hughes, Anna Mc Zentmyer, Jesse Bell, Maime Dean, Mary and Kathryn Ginn, Edna Frerking, Bertha Bishop, Lucile Reynolds, Anna James, Viola Jackson, Edna Bray, Susie Corder, Lewis Schultz, Earl Ham, James Kelley, Leslie Jones, Roy Dozier, Roy Chaburn, Leo Wollenman, Gilbert Kleinschmidt, Earl Reynolds, Alvin Frerking, Paul Sauvain, Walter Hefter, Gordon Jackson, Homer VanMeter, and Philip Smith.
